Welcome speech was delivered by Dr. J. A. Khot, Registrar, DYP-ATU, Talsande. He had highlighted an importance of water conservation in his welcome speech.

Er. A. B. Deshpande Co-ordinator and Committee member, IEI Local Centre, Kolhapur emphasized on this year's World Water Day theme with actual climatic and geographic variation in an Indian context. He had introduced the Chief guest and speaker of the function.

Dr. A. K. Gupta, Executive Director, D. Y. Patil Group, Kolhapur guided about the role of Agricultural Engineers to overcome the problems of water crisis in his speech. He insisted the participants and researchers to work on the similar issues faced by the farmers.

Prof. Dr. K. Prathapan, Vice-Chancellor, DYP-ATU, Talsande underlined the key for ground water recharge and highlighted the diversity in distribution of rainwater throughout India.

The speaker of the function Dr. Jaydeep S. Bagi, Former Director, Department of Technology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur focused on the moral values and wisdom required in each individual for the solution of water crisis. He had also shared his experiences in observing smart agricultural practices carried out in foreign countries and expected similar kind of output from future generations of India.

Dr. J. S. Ghatge, Associate Dean, Faculty of Agricultural Engineering, DYP-ATU, Talsande proposed formal vote of thanks.

In the PPC-2022, 34 posters were presented by 60 participants from 6 different colleges in 3 districts of Maharashtra State. The posters were observed and judged by a panel of four judges on the basis of poster content (clarity and quality), significance of topic (originality of content), poster organization (Layout and visual aids), delivery (confidence, understanding of topic and response to questions) and overall impression. On the basis of marks allotted by the judges, winner and runner-up were declared. The grand prize "Poster of the Event" was selected on the basis of score given by judges and observation by the organizing committee.

The valedictory function to handover the prizes and concluding remarks was conducted immediately after the completion of evaluation as above and lunch break. Valedictory function started with the felicitations of judges of PPC 2022 by offering a plant sapling. The observations and conclusions in PPC 2022 were presented by Er. A. B. Deshpande, Co-ordinator and Committee member, IEI Local Centre, Kolhapur and Er. R. V. Mane, Head, Department of Agricultural Engineering, Rajarshree Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj College of Agriculture, Kolhapur. The judges expressed satisfaction regarding the quality of posters, student's performance and well planned organization of the event. They said, participation is important than winning prizes hence participants should take part in such a competitions to gain the confidence in written and oral communication skills. The poster of the event, winners and runner-ups for PPC 2022 are as follows.
